DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 5, 10, 12, 16, 18, 28 and 29 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Christian et al. (6,200,666).

Christian et al. discloses a marker having discrete reflective elements (33, 54, for example) which is optionally formed on a web of water dispersible polymeric material (pigment).

There is optionally a pressure sensitive adhesive and release liner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3671

Claims 6, 7, 9, 11, 17, 21-23 and 27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Christian et al., as applied above.

Christian et al. specifically teaches severing the web. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have severed the web in the manner claimed in order to obtain a desired final configuration, in accordance with the teaching of Christian et al.

Christian et al. teach a graphic image, rather than the retroreflective elements; however, it is well known to use retroreflective elements in order to obtain a highly visible article. For this purpose, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have used retroreflective elements with Christian et al.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 4 and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed September 28, 2004 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
